

Our faith in art: See what you think of Adoration by Giuseppe Magni (1869 – 1956). Here we see our Lord as a chubby, cherubic child seated on the lap of His mother. He accepts the gift of vivid flowers from adoring, pious children. We see here in these children the virtues of faith and charity. Have we done our best to bring our children to the Lord? Have we fostered in them a love for the Lord? What flowers (good works, acts of charity) have we given to the Lord today?
